National Neurosurgical ActivitiesMUHAMMAD ANWAR CHAUDARY (Chief Editor)

Neurosurgery is an inherently dynamic specialty, developing at a very rapid pace, more so because of the involvement of and its dependence on advanced technology. The international neurosurgical scene is full of cutting edge research presented in dramatic meetings, conferences, workshops and courses. The local neurosurgical landscape is no exception. Its panorama is changing as the development of neurosurgery is gaining pace in Pakistan. Prospects look good considering the fact that the activity on the academic front is also getting richer. The following compilation of the individual events gives a flavour of this richness.

Agenda No. 5: Any other point/suggestion/agenda from the house.

Dr. Babar Butt from PINS Lahore reminded the GB that previously there was a Young Neurosurgeon Forum and it should be again a part of the PSN. The objective of the YNS Forum would be to enhance the educational activities of the YNS and also discuss the academic activities/problems of the YNS. Dr. Ajmal Khan also endorsed the suggestion of Dr. Babar Butt. The chairman appreciated and approved the suggestion of Dr. Babar and also he nominated Dr. Babar to again formulate the YNS forum with the help of Dr. Ajmal Khan.

Related to this Prof. Salman Sharif also discussed that earlier in EC meeting, we the members of the EC discussed different activities to enhance the educational/academic aspect of the members of the PSN by opting certain following measures;

1. There should be National fellowships/observer ships for YNS. The host department of the fellowship / observer ship should provide accommodation as well as salary to the fellows.
2. There should be a regular Neurosurgical activity by every province once in a 3 months' period, under the umbrella of PSN. This could be in the form of workshop or symposium.
3. A live webinar related to any Neurosurgical issue should be a part of the PSN once in a month. Prof. Salman Sharif proposed to have a coordinator in this regard from every province. Following names were proposed and agreed upon by the EC members.
 - a. Khyber Pakhtunkhwa = Prof. Shahid Ayub
 - b. Punjab = Prof. Asif Bashir
 - c. Sindh = Prof. Salman Sharif
 - d. Quetta = Yet to be decided

The house appreciated all the suggestions and chairman was very positive to implement these.

Agenda No. 6: Conclusion Remarks by the President / Senior Vice President

At the end Senior Vice President appreciated all the efforts done by the EC, specially he pays gratitude to the outgoing President and Press and Publication Secretary for their tireless efforts in enhancing academics and other achievements.
